

Programme

Unlocking the potential of collective bargaining through the transposition of the minimum wage directive (2452-043)

29-31 January 2025

29 January		30 January		31 January
9:00 – 10:30	Welcome from ETUC and ETUI Presentation of participants	Feedback day 1 Wage-up : ETUC monitoring tool <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presentation - Debates Which elements can contribute to a well-functioning CB system? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Brainstorming 	Design common tools to further promote the Collective bargaining (continuation) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Designing an overall strategy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Introduction ○ Working group
coffee break
11:00 – 12:30	Mapping different realities regarding the collective bargaining <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Working groups - Report back - Expert presentation(TBC) - Discussions 	Which elements can contribute to a well-functioning CB system?(continuation) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Countries' examples - Debates 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Report back ○ Discussions
lunch break
14:00 – 15:00	From transposition to implementation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Status of the transposition <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Individual and group work 	Designing common tools to further promote the Collective bargaining <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presentation by ETUC - Level up- collective bargaining coverage <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Working groups 			Departure
coffee break
15:30 – 17:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Status of the implementation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ First assessment ○ Exchange of practices ○ Discussions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Level up- collective bargaining coverage <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Working groups ○ Report back ○ Discussion

The ETUI is co-funded by the European Union etui.